MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD:

1. It is noted in the memorandum from the AD/SI that recruiting against this T/O will be governed by the ceiling figure of 31 December 1952 which has not been definitely determined but probably will not exceed [redacted] in number.

25X9A2

2. The overseas T/O for OSI as fixed by the Director on February 4, 1952 was [redacted]. This figure, of course, can be changed by the AD/SI moving personnel from one segment of his organization to another, and also by the DD/I doing the same thing within his group.

25X9A2

3. [redacted] stated that the number of on-duty personnel to be assigned to the overseas staff has not yet been determined, nor has the source of such personnel been determined, but it was not the intention of the AD/SI to recruit beyond any authorized on-duty ceiling which at the present moment is [redacted].
